Teen Art Guides

WAM Teen Art Guides is a volunteer program for teens exploring multiple facets of museum work and the interpretation of art objects.

What you'll need:

- keen observation skills
- willingness to try new things
- openness to sharing with peers and others

What you'll experience:

- discover what goes on behind the scenes at one of the southeast's leading art museums
- learn the basics of leading museum tours
- meet and interview visiting artists
- create cell phone audio guides for artists in WAM exhibitions
- act as Art Guides for WAM's Community Days and other special events
- earn volunteer credit for classes and participate in meaningful extracurricular experiences for your college applications

WAM Teen Art Guides meet at the Weatherspoon Art Museum, corner of Spring Garden & Tate Street, twice monthly, 4:15 (or after school)-5:30 pm, on first and third Thursdays, beginning October 4, 2012. Parking is available behind the museum.
